The Blue Bird Flower Craig Downey, 2012-09-16 This book is a collection of interesting characters that inhabit letters written to Mrs. Ainsworth by an unidentified character named Chuck. Chuck uses a clever trick by pawning his stories off on letters to Mrs. Ainsworth. Come and read about the boy who found infinity, invented 3D paint and a perpetual motion machine! Meet Drummond the Runt dog and see what the Brass Rat is all about and what about Light'nin' an Ringtail, odd names for dogs. What in the world is a Reciprocity Machine and how does it work? The Shrouded Monk so mysterious, and what was it about him that gave him an age of over 200 years? Why was there one squirrel too many, and did a wound to Jessie's throat really end the Civil War?

The Bluebird Story Dr. Don J. Harris,2013-01-21 Dr. Don Harris grew up in the swamps of South Louisiana, surrounded by wildlife. As a child, his typical pets included snakes, squirrels, raccoons, rats, bats, birds, alligators and armadillos. It's not surprising that, as an adult, he became a veterinarian whose entire career has been dedicated to the care of exotic animals. "The Bluebird Story" evolved from Dr. Harris telling his toddler son, Adam, stories about the animals of his childhood. While the story captures a bit of the animals' seasonal activities, what it really reveals is the truth behind the principle that giving, and acts of kindness toward our fellow creatures, brings about infinite blessings that could never be obtained otherwise.

Where am I Wearing? Kelsey Timmerman,2008-11-24 Globalization makes it difficult to know where the things you buy come from. Journalist and travel writer Kelsey Timmerman wanted to know where his clothes came from and who made them, so he traveled from Honduras to Bangladesh to Cambodia to China and back. Along the way, he met the people who made his favorite clothes and learned as much about them as he did about globalization itself. Enlightening and controversial at once, this book puts a human face on globalization.
