Gravelly Burial Ground, Brick Township, New Jersey Sal Marino, Many Students Schools 1976-1994, 2011-03-12 Gravelly Graveyard, also known as the Old Woolley Cemetery, is one of the oldest burial grounds within the present Brick Township, New Jersey borders. It is located on the north bank of the Metedeconk River and is situated on a bluff presenting a scenic overlook of the north branch of the river. The first recorded burial was in 1812 and the last in 1902. This book records the restoration of the cemetery by students of Mr. Sal A. Marino on Saturdays from 1976 until 1994. It began as a bicentennial project at the Lake Riviera Middle School in Brick Township, New Jersey

Brick Township Gene Donatiello, John Leavey, 2013 In 1850, the New Jersey Legislature created Ocean County and Brick Township, naming it for Joseph W. Brick, the industrious owner of Bergen Iron Works. At the beginning of the 20th century, Brick Township was a rural community. Up until the 1920s, postcards of the township were primarily architectural images. Brick Township contains updated images of familiar names and places: Emma Havens Young, for whom an elementary school has been named; the very popular Red Lion Tavern, later called the Red Lion Inn; the progression of four bridges crossing Barnegat Bay to the peninsula area of Brick Township; and Traders Cove Marina as it looked in the 1950s when it was called Pleasure Cove Marina. There are postcards from summer camps, such as Camp NEJECHO and Metedeconk Summer Camp, and from summer resorts, such as Breton Woods, Riviera Beach, and Normandy Beach.

The History of Brick Township High School Football Warren Wolf, 2012-06-01 Football is a game that is just like life, execution and teamwork are what we strive for. ?QCoach Wolf I hope I've made you proud Coach over the years. Coaching is more than a football field, it is the character of the man shaping boys into men. Thank you for the years you coached me and I will always cherish my experience with you. ?QArt Thoms, BTHS Class of 64, Super Bowl Champion Oakland Raiders 1976 Coach not only gave us the will to win and not accept defeat, he taught us to win with class and humility, preaching that humility is a basic characteristic of life. We all still carry that with us as adults and that is the bond we will always have. ?QSam Riello, BTHS Class of 1962 With fond memories, I remember the entire 51 years involved with Brick Football and how fortunate I was to work, learn, teach and coach with my Dad. Thank you Dad. ?QYou made it all worthwhile. ?QWarren C. Wolf Waz , BTHS Class of 1976 Coach Wolf, You have taught us more than just the game of football. You taught us how to be humble, gain character, be respectful, and understand the term dedication. I want to thank you again for everything you have done for me. Your leadership, pride, dedication, and humbleness, has rubbed off on me and has helped me throughout my career. You have helped me become who I am today. ?QPete Panuska, BTHS Class of 1982, University of Tennessee Coach Wolf is someone that is extremely special and has positively influenced hundreds of thousands of people, if not more. You probably don't know how much you still influence me today and I thank you for making me a better athlete, a better student, a better Christian, a better citizen of the community, and just a better person. ?QTodd Durkin, BTHS Class of 1989, William & Mary College Towering Pines Volume One Bruce A. Sarte, 2010-07-31 When high school superstar basketball player Liam Rider is sentenced to military school to serve out an aggravated assault charge, he thought his life was over. But when he meets the beautiful and mysterious Lisbeth Harrington, she sparks feelings in him he didn't know he had. Suddenly pulled into the past of the historic school by nightmares of his own suicide, Liam and Lisbeth are spurned forward into the hidden history of ghosts, suicide and murder. Can they solve the mysteries of the military school before Liam become ghost's next victim?
