Big Blue Bubble Buggy Thomas D. Brucker,2023-09-26 About the Book Big Blue Bubble Buggy is a story written by the whimsical and creative mind of Thomas D. Brucker. The story is based upon a surreal animated dream he had. He wrote the story on December 23,2001 for his Son Bryce and Daughter Brianna. Since then, the weight of time has altered their lives, relationships, and the world around them. Despite the weight of this change, the care and adoration that spawned the Big Blue Bubble Buggy has only blossomed and evolved further. With Bryce and Brianna well into adulthood, and their parents raising their next child, (a Golden Retriever named Sister), the portrait of their family looks undoubtedly different from the one displayed in Big Blue Bubble Buggy. Despite their changing lives, the same sunshine that permeates the pages of this story continues to surround their family today. The love which he is so fortunate to share with his family is never taken for granted. It is this same love that reminds Thomas to bask in the sun when it's there and be patient when it is not. He looks at Big Blue Bubble Buggy as a celebration of his family, written by a proud and eager father. Thomas feels truly honored to shape his clever and compassionate words from that colorful dream of adventure onto the pages which follow. Enjoy the ride! About the Author Thomas D. Brucker was born in Pittsburgh back in 1967. He spent his youth between Clearwater Beach Florida where he gained a love for sun rays, and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where he would stay to become an extraordinary family man, and a rockstar in his own right. Thomas attended Edinboro University, where he met his wife, Brenda, an aspiring teacher from St. Marys, Pennsylvania with a gorgeous smile and a boatload of charisma. The rest they say, was history. Thomas and Brenda moved to Virginia Beach. Young and in love, they lounged in the sun with their firstborn daughter, Brianna. A few years later, they would return to Pennsylvania where their son Bryce was born. Thomas owns a custom home contracting business and enjoys traveling, fishing, hiking, live music, riding motorcycles, an occasional skydive, and above all, spending quality time with family.

Like A Frog in a Pot: Domestic Violence, Inside Out Annie Chrysanthemum,2002-05-06 There's a cruel science experiment in which a frog is placed into a pot of cool water and heated slowly, one degree at a time. With such a gradual rise in temperature, the frog barely notices and is boiled alive. This is the predicament in which Annie found herself. Had her husband Ed become violent on their wedding night, she surely would have fled immediately. But instead, the marriage slowly deteriorated. She realized something wasn't right, but kept trying to make it work. If only she could have been a better cook, prettier, more fun, Ed would have loved her. It was only after a beating, in which she was thrown repeatedly against a door, that Annie finally took their 14-month-old son and left. This is a true story, written as a down-to-earth, daily journal and includes prayer, poetry, and Scripture. It's a story of faith, family, friendship, and survival.

Descriptosaurus Alison Wilcox,2017-11-15 Now in a fully updated third edition, Descriptosaurus is the first book for creative writing that is a thematic expansion of a dictionary and a thesaurus; it provides children with a comprehensive resource with which to expand their descriptive vocabulary, experiment with language and sentence structure and build up narratives based around settings, characters and creatures. Descriptosaurus positions the word, zooms in on it to examine the meaning, expands it into phrases, and then provides alternatives in words, phrases and sentences; the model was created and refined over a number of years as a result of feedback from children inside and outside the classroom as to the resources they required to inspire and assist them with their writing. For reluctant writers or those faced with blank page syndrome, it provides essential starting points to encourage putting pen to paper, not only inspiring children, but also building their confidence, encouraging them to use, apply and create using the correct grammatical structures, and adding colour to their writing through evaluation and experimentation. New features for this updated third edition include: Sample poems Word banks and model sentences to provide a step-by-step process for development of vocabulary and understanding of phrase, clause and sentence structure Contextualised grammar and punctuation instruction and guidance Units of work where the models can be incorporated in a creative focus A companion website containing all the features of the book, games, planning sheets and vocabulary builders This is an ideal resource to dramatically improve children’s creative writing for all KS2 primary and KS3 secondary English teachers, literacy coordinators and parents. It would also make an excellent classroom book for PGCE students, particularly Primary PGCE with English specialism.
