Building an Effective Women's Ministry Sharon Jaynes, 2005-07-01 Building an Effective Women's Ministry is a one-of-a-kind how-to manual that offers a wide-range of help to women, from those just starting out to those who have a thriving ministry but could use a fresh idea or two. Sharon Jaynes, vice president of Proverbs 31 Ministries, honestly addresses some of the questions women encounter as they put their dreams in action, and she offers clear direction for concerns that include I want to start a women's ministry, but I don't know where to begin. My women's ministry is stale and needs new life. I've been asked to lead a women's ministry, and I'm scared to death. God has wonderful things in store for those who will build a ministry with Him.

The Big Door Prize M. O. Walsh, 2020-09-08 The New York Times bestselling author of My Sunshine Away returns with another instant Southern classic: a gripping and heartfelt novel about a mysterious machine that upends a small Louisiana town, asking us all to wonder if who we truly are is who we truly could be. What would you do if you knew your life's potential? That's the question facing the residents of Deerfield, Louisiana, when the DNAMIX machine appears in their local grocery store. It's nothing to look at, really--it resembles a plain photo booth. But its promise is amazing: With just a quick swab of your cheek and two dollars, the device claims to use the science of DNA to tell you your life's potential. With enough credibility to make the townspeople curious, soon the former teachers, nurses, and shopkeepers of Deerfield are abruptly changing course to pursue their destinies as magicians, cowboys, and athletes--including the novel's main characters, Douglas Hubbard and his wife, Cheryl, who both believed they were perfectly happy until they realized they could dream for more... Written with linguistic grace and a sense of wonder, The Big Door Prize sparkles with keen observations about what it might mean to stay true to oneself while honoring the bonds of marriage, friendship, and community, and how the glimmer of possibility can pull these bonds apart, bring them back together, and make second chances possible, even under the strangest of circumstances.

For the Love of Reading Nancy L. Baumann, 2013-10-17 This insightful book reviews the current research on literacy programming, examines the latest standards for strengthening reading skills, and provides educators, families, and caregivers methods for building successful reading habits in and out of the classroom. Research indicates that children need more than classroom instruction to become proficient readers.

Unfortunately, few parents realize how simple, everyday practices can build a lifelong love of reading. Educators, diligent with employing mandatory literacy standards, may overlook families and support systems as tools for improving student performance. This book provides a comprehensive overview of the various methods of reading instruction, analyzing the pedagogy behind Sustained Silent Reading (SSR), the importance of reading aloud to children, and the necessity of working the home-school connection. For the Love of Reading: Guide to K-8 Reading Promotions provides strategies and tips for setting up successful reading environments for children, including having a well-stocked library collection; engaging students through book clubs, reading lists, and prepared book talks; and involving student and adult volunteers. The author asserts that the entire school community—teachers, librarians, parents, caregivers, and administrators—must work together to promote literacy.

Money in Motion Doug E. Lachance, 2006-12-06 Doug has penned Money in Motion: A Back to Basics Approach to Build Your Business. In addition to providing a step-by-step guide to building sales, the appendixes include a Kick Start Checklist, scripts, questionnaires, call sheets, worksheets for projects, seminars, value proposition and presentations. Everything you need to kick start your business! Doug's philosophy and approach to success is a fundamental belief that The Relationship Curve - building relationships of trust and patiently positioning yourself for the time when there is a need and money goes in motion, drives the business development process. At this moment you must have a value proposition and presentation that will land the customer - many times you do not get a second chance.

Productivity is achieving the greatest results in the shortest period of time. In Doug's book, he explains how to get back to basics. How to be organized; focused; how to find people just like your best customers; how to meet them and start a relationship with them; how to build a relationship of trust with a powerful and systematic slow drip; and how finally to articulate your value proposition and build a dynamic presentation template that lands the customer every time. Leverage is achieving the greatest results with the least amount of effort. Doug discusses how to use projects to get many things done; how to leverage time with seminars and networking activities; how to leverage relationships through Centers of Influences; and how to leverage efforts by finding other people to execute activities for you. Most importantly, Doug shows how applying some simple fundamental principles and focusing short bursts of high energy into them over a period of days, weeks, months and years builds a momentum which takes your business to new heights of success.

Social workers, counselors in public and private agencies, clinical psychologists, therapists, group leaders, and educators can use this book to help clients cope with life rather than be overwhelmed by life's problems. Participants of the program follow the second book in this set, The Learning About Myself (LAMS) Handbook for Group Participants, to learn how to make better decisions, set goals, and live life by choice rather than by chance. The Learning About Myself (LAMS) Program for At-Risk Parents is the result of author Verna Rickard's many years of casework in intensive home-based services to high-risk abusive and neglectful families. The leader of this course does not need to be a therapist, only someone with a basic knowledge of social work or psychological concepts. (Please also see the title The Learning About Myself (LAMS) Program for At-Risk Parents: Handbook for Group Participants, the second book in this set. Therapists: Take 50 off the workbook price when ordering 5 or more copies!)
