The Practical Guide to Organising Events Philip
Berners, 2017-07-14 The Practical Guide to Organising Events is a short, accessible and practical guide on how to successfully plan and organise a variety of event types in a wide range of contexts. The core sections of the text are logically structured around the key stages of event management – pre-event, on-site and post-event – offering essential practical insight and guidance throughout the whole process. Topics covered include proposal writing, budget, funding and sponsorship, health and safety, security and evaluation. This is a fundamental resource for all events management students running and organising an event as part of their degree programme. It is also a book for anybody who just happens to be tasked with organising an event such as an office party, a social networking event, Christmas party or family wedding. Based on experience, using real-life case studies and anecdotal examples, The Practical Guide to Organising Events ultimately makes the business of events management appealing, understandable and achievable.

Silver Screen in the Silver City Michael Thomson, 1988 Account of cinemas in Aberdeen.

Poole's Myriorama! Hudson John Powell, 2002 Drawing strongly on contemporary sources and illustrated with over 50 pictures this book provides an authoritative account of the history of the showmen and their contemporaries. It maps the history of the spectral opera shows developed by the Poole brothers and Anthony Young.

Film History, 1998

Valleys of Song Gareth Williams, 1998 Like all clichés, Wales as 'the Land of Song' has a solid basis in historical fact. Welsh choral singing was a form of popular culture in the nineteenth century. Crowds followed the choirs in even greater numbers than in football matches, and Eisteddfod competitions frequently became 'choral bull-fights' where keenly honed rivalries spilled over into betting, missile throwing, assaults on adjudicators and general violence. This is the story of Wales as the 'the Land of Song' as it has never been told before - colourful, dramatic and uplifting. Vividly written in a lucid style by an accomplished social and cultural historian, this is a celebration of the land of song in its hey-day that will appeal to a wide audience

Celebrating 1895 John Fullerton, 1998 Includes 27 of the finest papers presented at The Centenary of Cinema conference in June 1995

The William Parker Sessionography Rick Lopez, 2014 This is a fully annotated (and generously illustrated) record of practically every time that elemental jazz double bassist-composer William Parker has ever played a gig or recording session, as a band member or leader, from 1972 clear through to June 2014. A vast microcosm of one profoundly engaged jazz musician which reveals an illuminated macrocosm of jazz itself.

Rhizome, 1997

An Idea of History Américo Castro, 1977

Cinema West Sussex Allen Eyles, A. E. Readman, 1996 The South Coast was popular with early film-makers and the county had links with many. Their work is highlighted and that of the film studio at Shoreham, which produced a string of successful feature films. This book also provides a rare insight into the world of amateur cinematography with the remarkable story of the nationally-acclaimed Bognor Regis Film Society. The authors trace the travelling showmen who brought moving pictures to public halls and fairgrounds and describe in detail the history of all 62 cinemas that have operated in West Sussex.

The Sam Rivers Sessionography Rick Lopez, 2021-12 A discography/session-ography with interwoven biography of jazz icon Sam Rivers.
