

Guide To Hajj

Lingjun Ying

Simple Hajj Guide Mufti Hasan Khan, Mufti Hasan Raza Razavi, 2019-05 Hajj is one of the five pillars of Islam. The yearly flood of pilgrims from the remotest places of Islam has been a remarkable means of spiritual renewal for distant communities, which are thus brought closer to the manifest center of Islam. Historically, the pilgrimage has been a means of knitting together the many races and nations that make the Muslim community, and there is no other event on earth that can compare with it. TYPE OF HAJJ There are three ways of performing the Hajj Haj at-Tamatt'u (Interrupted) This means entering into Ahram for the Umrah aking it off after performing the Umrah, and hen entering into Ahram again for the Haij People who come from other countries usually perform Haj at-Tamatt'u. Hajj al-Qiran (Combined) This means entering into Ahram for both the Umrah and the Hajj at the same time, not taking off the Ahram until the day of sacrifice at Mina. Hajj al-Ifrad (Single) This means enter ng into Ahram only for the Haij. HAJJ INTENTION OF HAJJ CONDITIONS OF HAJJ BEFORE STARTING JOURNEY THE RESTRICTIONS OF AHRA M THE TAWAAF OF ARRIVAL FIVE DAYS OF HAJJ AFTER HAJJ TAWAAF, SAE E AND ITS METHOD VISIT MADINA MUNAWWARA

Companion of Hajj MUFTI IKRAM UL HAQ, 2014 If you need to learn about the fifth pillar of Islam and how it is performed then you must read this book. Companion of Hajj is one the most authentic books authored on the rulings of Hajj. This book provides practical and detailed guidance to the rituals of Hajj and Umrah. Companion of Hajj will be your true companion in your blessed journey of lifetime.

Hajj & Umrah Barkate Raza, Mufti Hasan Raza Razavi, 2019-06-19 significances and excellence, the Hajj 1. is the best means to strengthen religious communication and coordination among the Muslims of the whole world hailing from different countries with their separate nationality, race, language and colour and to collect them on a single platform thereby making them rally round the banner of Kalimah Tauheed (the Code of Oneness of Allah) which is the pivot of Islaam. 2. The simple unstitched white clothing which Prophet Adam wore, is proposed for Haajis so that the Muslims who all belief in One Allah, one Messenger, one Book, and one Kaaba look alike sans any social ranking and status thereby to demonstrate outward religious harmony and cohesion too. 3. It envisages projection of the glory and truthfulness of Islaam besides earning believers the benefits and gains of the air, land and sea travels. 4. It also embraces the aims and objectives which kings and rulers achieve by holding grand courts, an association or organization achieve by holding annual meetings and chamber of commerce achieve by holding international fairs. 5. Hajj also satisfies the inquisition of anthropologists, archaeologists, geologists, historians, and geographers. 6. Most of Hajj's sites are either prominent symbols of Allah or have attachments with the Messengers and Prophets which refresh the memory of the sacred traditions and remind of the events of Divine blessings and mercy attached with these signs. In short, the Divine Law which the Holy Prophet brought with him is so comprehensive and practical that it covers all temporal and spiritual affairs. It's each and every word abounds with wisdom and reasons which is evident from the fact that the worldly and spiritual benefits and objectives of Islamic commands and worships are before the whole world and will continue coming to the fore until the Doomsday.

A Guide to Hajj Umrah and Visiting the Prophet shaikh Abdulkarim Parekh,

The Ultimate Guide to Umrah Abu Muneer Ismail Davids, 2006 After Hajj, a Muslim considers Umrah to be the most significant worship that brings the opportunity of rewards and blessings of visiting Ka'bah and the Prophet's Mosque along with other sacred places one wishes to visit. This title is based on the book Getting the Best out of Hajj and contains chapters on Umrah in Ramadaan and visiting Madinah.

A Guide to Hajj and Umrah Anis Matthews, Daud Matthews, 2014-04-24 Th e authors have drawn on their own experience of living in Saudi Arabia for 23 years to write A Guide for Hajj and 'Umrah. It is an enlightening spiritual and practical guide for the sacred journeys of Hajj and Umrah. Its a guided tour through a number of very meaningful emotional and religious experiences. But its also so much more... It is a journey of self-discovery as well as the discovery of Islam. Its a primer on Islamic practices that will undoubtedly intrigue and captivate both Muslim and Non Muslim audiences through engaging story-telling. Th e text itself is well written and simple, getting straight to the heart of the matter of proper religious observance and practice on what may rightly be called the pilgrimage of a lifetime... Th e photographs displayed near the end of the book are astounding and original, especially for readers from Non Muslim countries, who have in all probability never before seen such sights as the spellbinding, pure-as-snow brightness of Masjid-Nabawi at night, or the sober splendor of the Prophet's Mosque. Interspersed with the practical maps, tips and guides that all pilgrims will appreciate are the most beautiful and heartfelt invocations and prayers to Allah, the Most Powerful and Compassionate, as well as a thrilling narration of Islam's early history and lore. Particularly moving and evocative is the beautifully retold beginning of sa'ee, the struggle as an act of absolute trust in Allah, as displayed by a desperate and lonely Hajar. Especially touching and profound is the authors recommendation to work hard on understanding the du'as recited as a pilgrim, instead of simply carrying pamphlets and reciting them in blind fashion without understanding their meaning. Such a warning is a necessity, as casualness might well impair the sincerity of the appeal, which should come straight from the pilgrim's heart. In short, this book is truly the perfect companion for a deeply spiritual and personal pilgrimage to the heart of Islam.

Pilgrimage in Islam Hüseyin Yağmur, 2007 An extensive manual describing the Hajj--a journey that enlightens the significance of human existence and submission--this guidebook offers advice for those undertaking the holy voyage and gives the meanings behind its rituals. With special attention to the people who make the journey--approximately three million Muslims a year--this reference illuminates the importance of one of the fundamental forms of Islamic worship as a social and cosmic transformation.

Hajj & Umrah Fisabilillah Authenticate Ulama's Organization, 2016-03-03 INTRODUCTION Hajj, the fifth pillar of Islam, brings together Muslims of all races and creed to adopt two unidentifiable white pieces of cloth in an awesome demonstration of Islam's total disregard of insignificant issues like race, social position and nationality. Annually, several million people make the pilgrimage to Makkah from every corner of the globe, providing a unique opportunity of those different nations to meet one another, making it the largest gathering in the world. It is a clear-cut act of worship, but also it is symbolic and represents the spirit's return to its place of origin. Hajj is an essential duty (fardh) for all Muslims, who are physically and financially able to perform it. Allah Ta'ala has prescribed certain rites that a pilgrim should uphold for his pilgrimage to be correct. The primary condition is intention (niyyah), while the others will be mentioned in their places. The meaning of the pilgrimage (Hajj meaning effort) is to leave all worldly activities aside and go forth to meet Allah Ta'ala. The purpose of Hajj is to develop consciousness of Allah Ta'ala and also spiritual upliftment. It is also an opportunity to atone sins collected throughout life. Prophet Muhammad [PBUH] had said that a person who performs Hajj properly will return as (sinless as) a newly born baby. Due to the usual practice of Umrah being performed before the Hajj, it was deemed appropriate that this publication starts with Umrah. The first part of this book deals with the procedures of Umrah. It clearly outlines the entire procedure of how Umrah should be performed, explaining each part of Umrah individually and giving a breakdown of which actions are necessary and which one's are Sunnah and virtuous. Thereafter the rites of Hajj are described in full in the same clear distinctive manner. Starting from the explanation of the three types of Hajj and how they differ. The Hajj at a glance diagram has been specially made to assist the Hajji in simplifying the procedure further.
