Botanimals Jennifer Linderman,2016-11-15 This is a hand illustrated coloring book for all ages with a hidden wordplay theme throughout the book which gives it a rather unique twist. Illustrator and author, Jennifer Linderman, takes artistic license to create whimsical and beautiful nature scenes for hours of coloring fun in her very first coloring book! Within the pages of the book you will find yourself immersed in a world of exotic plants and animals, each with a unique relationship to one another. Botanimals, however, is more than just a coloring book. It aims to introduce a bit of wit and charm through it's hidden plant and animal names. This attribute is a direct reflection upon it's author who most enthusiastically enjoys the game of word play. This is the first volume in a series of future books boasting over 40 pages of whimsical nature scenes from bears to owls to toads to kangaroos, each with their own botanic partner to discover. A multitude of media can be used to colorize the book including colored pencils, gel pens or any other dry media desired. There are also a variety of pattern pages uniquely designed so that they may not only be used as coloring pages but if removed from the book can also be transformed into gift wrap, envelope liners or even folded into Origami objects! Enjoy the world of Botanimals and watch them come alive with your colorful interpretations!

My Coloring Book: Coloring Book for Toddlers A. L. Arteaga,2021-06-28 A nice 100 Animals, letters and numbers Coloring Book For Toddler! Coloring pictures are not just a way to entertain children: They help to develop fine motor skills, which is the type of motor skills that involves small groups of muscles and precision movements, in which body movements must be coordinated with sight. They stimulate creativity, for this we recommend not giving a color model to children and letting them color following their imagination. contribute to forming emotional aspects such as self-esteem and the ability to concentrate on an activity Coloring relaxes and provides a moment of pause and tranquility.
