Myths of the Near Future J. G. Ballard, 1994 First published 1982. Short stories providing visions of other times and other places, where nothing seems quite right

Ready Player One Ernest Cline, 2011-08-16 #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • Now a major motion picture directed by Steven Spielberg. “Enchanting . . . Willy Wonka meets The Matrix.”—USA Today • “As one adventure leads expertly to the next, time simply evaporates.”—Entertainment Weekly A world at stake. A quest for the ultimate prize. Are you ready? In the year 2045, reality is an ugly place. The only time Wade Watts really feels alive is when he’s jacked into the OASIS, a vast virtual world where most of humanity spends their days. When the eccentric creator of the OASIS dies, he leaves behind a series of fiendish puzzles, based on his obsession with the pop culture of decades past. Whoever is first to solve them will inherit his vast fortune—and control of the OASIS itself. Then Wade cracks the first clue. Suddenly he’s beset by rivals who’ll kill to take this prize. The race is on—and the only way to survive is to win. NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY Entertainment Weekly • San Francisco Chronicle • Village Voice • Chicago Sun-Times • iO9 • The AV Club “Delightful . . . the grown-up’s Harry Potter.”—HuffPost “An addictive read . . . part intergalactic scavenger hunt, part romance, and all heart.”—CNN “A most excellent ride . . . Cline stuffs his novel with a cornucopia of pop culture, as if to wink to the reader.”—Boston Globe “Ridiculously fun and large-hearted . . . Cline is that rare writer who can translate his own dorky enthusiasms into prose that’s both hilarious and compassionate.”—NPR “[A] fantastic page-turner . . . starts out like a simple bit of fun and winds up feeling like a rich and plausible picture of future friendships in a world not too distant from our own.”—iO9

The Winter of Visions and Forgetting Jack Birnbaum, 2002 In the bitterly cold winter of 2008, Dr. Daniel Newman is still coming to terms with the loss of his wife in the horrific “events” that struck New York City three years before. Now his brilliant but troubled eleven-year-old niece Kate is developing a strange collection of symptoms. Daniel’s efforts to find the cause of her affliction in time to save her life will lead him into a struggle against a government that has its own terrible secrets to protect, to the promise of a new love, and eventually to a confrontation with the twin darkness’s of an unimaginable manmade hell and his own memories. Filled with unexpected humor, fascinating scientific speculations and memorable characters, The Winter of Visions and Forgetting is a frighteningly prophetic and emotionally powerful novel of our near future. And a warning to us all.

A Small Box of Chaos Alan Robbins, 2005-04 There are cameras at every turn, smart buildings that know all about you, virtual realities that overcome real ones. And there is instant access to all of it through a computer the size of a credit card. The year is 2040 and constant monitoring is the price you pay for being connected. But can you get away with murder in such a world? That is the problem facing data maven and control freak Aldo Weeks when a single lapse in judgment plunges him into unknown terrain. First there is a midnight tryst with an exotic redhead. Then a murderous duet with a madman. As he tries to outwit the vast net of information, he encounters a strange puzzle box at the center of the whole affair, a box of chaos that might just hold the key to how complexity rules the universe.

Imminent Commons: Urban Questions for the Near Future Hyungmin Pai,Alejandro Zaera-Polo,2022-02-04 The cities of the world stand at a crossroads. Amidst radical social, economic, and technological transformations, will the city become a driving force of creativity, diversity, and sustainability, or will it be a mechanism of inequality, despair, and environmental decay? At this critical moment, where do the stakes lie and what are the agents of change? From the time of its birth, the city has been held together by the commons. The book includes essays by Alejandro Zaera, Hyungmin Pai, Maider Llaguno, Nerea Calvillo, Hyewon Lee, Lindsay Bremner, Alex Ivancic, Iñaki Abalos, Charles Waldheim, David Gissen, Carlo Ratti, Daniele Belleri, Antoine Pico, Saskia Saseen, Adam Greenfield, Jesse LeCavalier, Philip Rode, Duncan McLaren, Julian Agyeman, Gunter Pauli, Gramazio and Kohler, Mario Carpo, Dirk E. Hebel, Marta H. Wisniewska, Felix Heisel, Mitchell Joachim, and Christian Hubert. The first publication of the Seoul Biennale of Architecture and Urbanism 2017, proposes a framework that sets basic commons ? an evolving network of agencies, resources and technologies ? as the critical issue in the move towards a sustainable and just urbanism. It shows an exploration not of distant utopias, but of the very near future, because the emerging commons is changing the way we connect, make, move, recycle, sense, and share, and the way we manage air, water, energy and the earth. Whether met with fear or hope, they will very soon change the way we live in the city.

Stories from the Near-Future Andrew MacRae,2016-09-25 Twenty-one stories exploring our world in the Near-Future! Smart phones, smart cars, smart toasters, where can this lead? Will our new, interconnected life deliver on its Bellamyian proph- esies, or will we find ourselves in an Uber-tech, Orwellian world? Such is the nature of the stories in this anthology. We asked our authors for stories envisioning life in the Near Future - a future recognizably related to the world in which we live today, but a smattering of years from now, and extrapolated from our present.

Non Metallic E. C. Stever,2018-04-20 Five near-future science fiction short stories, designed at the molecular level to enthrall and amaze. This collection contains Stever's previously published science fiction, as well as five new essays from the author on human creativity, consciousness, and story creation. All stories are post-apocalyptic or involve the upcoming singularity (when humans transcend humanity), with a dusting of kick-ass action and Stever's trademark dark humor. This collection includes:'NonMetallic' - Unaugmented humans have the right to live traditionally. Just don't look behind that curtain...'The Judas Horse' - In a town tormented by insane super-soldiers, every transgression is punishable by death. So what's the harm in a little murder? 'Catch_all{}' - The Anti-Apocalypse is here. A friendly reminder from your automated overlord. 'Bob Ten' - Bob Ten has the strength of six men. But that's not nearly enough to destroy the alien invaders who stole his pants.'A Time Without Roads' - The dumbing down of Earth has reached its crisis point. But our artificial stupidity is the only thing preventing an alien takeover.

An Interlude in Dreamland Alan Robbins,2005-09 Her name is Mama Nostromento and someone close to her has been murdered. She may be the only one who knows why. But the truth is locked inside her mind, lost in a tangle of thoughts as a neurovirus ravages her memory. Enterman, expert in intuition and reluctant investigator of strange events, is called in to find the answer and Rita St. John, a beautiful and very uncommon bodyguard, is there to protect him. It is 2050 and the worldwide communications net known as the Glob ties everyone together. But can all the technology of the near future, instant information at the merest whisper, help them to solve this mystery before time runs out? The answer lies in a secret world, hidden from outsiders, under the ruins of old Coney Island. It is a world of mythic forces and dark rituals that threatens to overpower even the latest high-tech wizardry. Because Mama Nostromento is no ordinary witness; she is a banshee, gatekeeper for the dead.
