Anderson,2012-11-01 The first day of Kindergarten can be a scary time for some. For twin brothers PJ and Parker, the time has come for them to start Kindergarten. PJ is afraid that once school begins there will be a lot of changes at home and everything as he knows it will no longer be the same. This story is about growing up, bravery, and transitions. It is about making new friends and trying new things. Come join PJ and Parker as they enter school for the first time. PJ's Story Josephine Pelt,2022-11-03 PJ's story is not a story about rags to riches. It is a test of true love, faith, and strength! The story is about a young African American girl growing up in one of the poorest segregated parts of Southern Alabama. From the time she was a young girl, PJ had dreams of moving to the big city and becoming a successful business woman. The story chronicles PJ's struggling childhood homelife to adulthood and to single-parenthood. It tells of her journey to what she called the big-city life and all the struggles and trials she faced along the way trying to find love in the men she encountered in her life and to fulfill her dreams of success. Through all her struggles and trials, PJ had to learn the hard way that her quest to find love and success in people was not God's plan for her life. She had to learn that in order to achieve those things, she had to put God first and follow his commands. She learned that love doesn't come from getting God and people to love you, but it comes from you, getting to love God, people, and yourself. PJ learned that it doesn't matter if you have a two-parent home or a single-parent home. What matters is that you do your best to raise your children in the fear and admonition of the Lord, teaching them the value and the true meaning of love from God's perspective. No matter what path your children may take, always love them unconditionally and always pray for protection over their lives. In other words, stand in the gap for your children and all your family members, and watch God work!
