Inside the Space Ships George Adamski, 2018-03-12 What has happened to George Adamski since he wrote the famous incidents in Flying Saucers Have Landed? Since the memorable November 20, 1952, when he first made personal contact with a man from another world? Since December 13, 1952 when he was able to make photographs within 100 feet of the same saucer that had brought his original visitor? Inside The Space Ships is Adamski's own story of what has happened to him since then. It begins with his first meeting, a few months later, with a second man from another world—his first meeting with one who speaks to him. This second visitor brings him to a Venusian Scout (flying saucer) and this, in turn, brings him to a mother ship. Later he is conveyed in both a Saturnian Scout and a Saturnian mother ship. Adamski tells us what transpires in these space craft and what the men and women from other worlds have told him. Adamski's photographs of flying saucers, originally published in Flying Saucers Have Landed, have since become world-famous as other witnesses in other parts of the world have succeeded in taking photographs identical with his. Now, however, in Inside The Space Ships, Adamski gives us 16 photographs and illustrations, no longer of Scouts (flying saucers) mostly, but of the great space ships from which they are launched. The main group of these photographs was taken in April, 1955, and neither the photographs nor a description of them has ever been published before.

The Flying Saucers Have Landed George Adamski,Desmond Leslie,2017-11-06 If Adamski and the six companions who swore an affidavit to his Space Man encounter are not trying to pull off a gigantic hoax, then this is quite possibly the greatest story ever. That was what the Daily Sketch wrote about Flying Saucers Have Landed. For, in the second part of this book, Adamski swears that he saw a space ship land in the desert in California and that he made contact with one of its occupants. More, he provides considerable testimony to support his claims. Desmond Leslie, who contributes the first part of the book, goes even further, asserting that flying saucers have been landing on earth for thousands of years, and gives records of their arrivals

Image in meditation Jana Gunstheimer,2015 In Image in Meditation, German artist Jana Gunstheimer (born 1974) presents a multipurpose building of her own invention. The layout and use of this building's many rooms are shown through Gunstheimer's sketches, floor plans, photographs and geometric designs.

Japan's Love for Impressionism Beate Marks-Hanssen, Kunst- und Ausstellungshalle der Bundesrepublik Deutschland, 2015 This volume describes--from a new angle--the mutual fascination that developed between French and Japanese culture following the political opening of the island state during the mid-nineteenth century. Large-format illustrations of Impressionist masterpieces from collections in Japan demonstrate the love of Japanese artists and collectors for French impressionism--Page 4 of cover.

Last Year in Marienbad Christoph Grunenberg, Eva Fischer-Hausdorf, 2015 The 1961 film Last Year in Marienbad broke with traditional structures of time, location, and causality like no other film before it. The director, Alain Resnais, played with an artistic language in which the style itself became the content. In doing so, he defined an appreciation of art that has extended into the present day: Nouvelle Vague. The catalogue examines the influence of the film on the fine arts, on Pop culture and fashion, garnering international approaches from the beginning of the twentieth century through to the present.
