If you are looking for something different. Something with a new flavor then this is the game system for you. What makes our game system so different is we have developed a system called the Task Level system and the Open Magic System. What makes these so different than most others is that these systems are easy to learn, broad in their applications, and have so much room for the endless possibilities that make gaming fun. One of the features of the Open

Magic System is that you can instantly utilize any item, any spell from any other system. So you can use your existing game manuals for this game if you want to. So no wasting games you already purchased. The Task Level System gives players an easy to learn dice roll that controls every aspect of game play. From combat, to magic use. From saving throws to picking locks, and the everyday tasks in between. One table, One dice roll is all you need to know. You will also notice that the layout is a lot different in the Alterverse Role Players Game. Most notably, we have included the Players and Game Masters content in ONE manual. We do this on purpose as we feel that when you buy a game, you need to have ALL of the basic rules to start playing. Also WHY? buy two books at double the money? Your gaming dollars deserve a break.
