Anne of Green Gables Lucy Maud Montgomery,2023-08-31 Anne of Green Gables by Lucy Maud Montgomery is a 1908 novel by Canadian author Lucy Maud Montgomery (published as L. M. Montgomery). Written for all ages, it has been considered a classic children's novel since the mid-20th century. Set in the late 19th century, the novel recounts the adventures of 11 year old orphan girl Anne Shirley sent by mistake to two middle-aged siblings, Matthew and Marilla Cuthbert, who had originally intended to adopt a boy to help them on their farm in the fictional town of Avonlea in Prince Edward Island, Canada. The novel recounts how Anne makes her way through life with the Cuthberts, in school, and within the town. Plot summary Anne Shirley, a young orphan from the fictional community of Bolingbroke, Nova Scotia (based upon the real community of New London, Prince Edward Island), [16][17] is sent to live with Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert, unmarried siblings in their fifties and sixties, after a childhood spent in strangers' homes and orphanages. Marilla and Matthew had originally decided to adopt a boy from the orphanage to help Matthew run their farm at Green Gables, which is set in the fictional town of Avonlea (based on Cavendish, Prince Edward Island). Through a misunderstanding, the orphanage sends Anne instead. Anne is fanciful, imaginative, eager to please, and dramatic. She is also adamant her name should always be spelt with an e at the end. However, she is defensive about her appearance, despising her red hair, freckles and pale, thin frame, but liking her nose. She is talkative, especially when it comes to describing her fantasies and dreams. At first, stern Marilla says Anne must return to the orphanage, but after much observation and consideration, along with kind, quiet Matthew's encouragement, Marilla decides to let her stay. The book recounts Anne's struggles and joys in settling in to Green Gables (the first real home she's ever known): the country school where she quickly excels in her studies; her friendship with Diana Barry, the girl living next door (her best or bosom friend as Anne fondly calls her); her budding literary ambitions; and her rivalry with her classmate Gilbert Blythe, who teases her about her red hair. For that, he earns her instant hatred, although he apologizes several times. As time passes, however, Anne realizes she no longer hates Gilbert, but her pride and stubbornness keep her from speaking to him. The book also follows Anne's adventures in Avonlea. Episodes include play-time with her friends Diana, calm, placid Jane Andrews, and beautiful, boy-crazy Ruby Gillis. She has run-ins with the unpleasant Pye sisters, Gertie and Josie, and frequent domestic scrapes such as dyeing her hair green while intending to dye it black, and accidentally getting Diana drunk by giving her what she thinks is raspberry cordial but which turns out to be currant wine.

The Mom Test Rob Fitzpatrick, 2013-10-09 The Mom Test is a quick, practical guide that will save you time, money, and heartbreak. They say you shouldn't ask your mom whether your business is a good idea, because she loves you and will lie to you. This is technically true, but it misses the point. You shouldn't ask anyone if your business is a good idea. It's a bad question and everyone will lie to you at least a little . As a matter of fact, it's not their responsibility to tell you the truth. It's your responsibility to find it and it's worth doing right . Talking to customers is one of the foundational skills of both Customer Development and Lean Startup. We all know we're supposed to do it, but nobody seems willing to admit that it's easy to screw up and hard to do right. This book is going to show you how customer conversations go wrong and how you can do better.

Typing Master Jolanda Hemauer,2021-08-11 Touch typing is typing without looking at the keyboard. The fundamental idea is that each finger is given its section of the keyboard and your fingers learn the location of the keyboard through practicing regularly and gaining muscle memory to eventually build up speed whilst typing. Learning to touch-type with this method takes only 10 hours. You will reap the benefits for a lifetime, whether you are using a keyboard at work or home. The easy-to-use lessons are provided into manageable one-hour blocks and there are plenty of exercises to consolidate what you have learned. And touch-typing is a skill that can make you money as well as saving you time.

Increase Your Typing Speed Tremendously Harvey Swann, 2017-02-06 Come along. Follow me on my journey. This is a true story of my life as a 100+ words per minute speedster. After struggling to type 35 to 45 words per minute, I developed a technique that transformed me into a 100+ words per minute speedster. Since then, I've been clocked as high as 110+ words per minute. Go on this journey with me to Washington, D.C., Baltimore, New Jersey and New York as you read my story. And learn how to become a typing speedster. Here is an excerpt.....After sitting down, she went over the information the receptionist had taken from me and asked me other questions as she took notes. She asked me what type of work I was interested in. I told her I was interested in working as a word processor. The next question she asked, as usual was, How fast do you type? I told her, Approximately 100 words per minute. Maybe it's because I am a male; maybe because of other reasons. I don't know. But the look she gave me was as if to say, Sure you can! And I can jump over the moon! I didn't say anything because by now, ever since I had acquired the ability of typing 100+ words per minute, I had become used to this type of reaction from individuals who interviewed me at employment agencies and elsewhere. She was not the first person to give me that expression. She asked me to sit at the typewriter to take a 5 minute typing test. I could tell by her manner that she still did not believe I typed 100 words per minute. She didn't act maliciously or anything. She only seemed a little irritated with me for coming in and wasting her time. She set the timing clock and told me to begin typing. I began typing, thinking to myself, I am going to love this. The bell went off indicating my time was up. She came over, took the paper on which I had typed, went to her desk and proceeded to check my typing for errors, etc. I will never forget the look on her face and how quickly her attitude towards me changed after she finished grading that paper. She became all bubbly. She wanted to send me to this company. She wanted to send me to that company. She told me that there were numerous companies to which she would like to send me. I had become a commodity to her. She called her co-worker over and told her co-worker about me. It turns out that I had typed a total of 110 words per minute. They told me they had never run into anyone who typed that fast. Keep in mind, this was an employment agency, located just outside of New York city. A place where secretaries, word processors and other typists trek practically every day of the year looking for work and taking typing tests. I would like to add that a lot of the individuals who frequent these agencies are professional secretaries in between jobs. Others, like myself, work as temporary employees because of the flexibility it offers as to when and where to work. But my point is a lot of them have great skills. Some don't. But a lot of them do. And for those counselors to tell me that I was the fastest typist they had ever seen was a feather in my cap. I had walked into that agency an obscure individual. By the time I left I was the talk of the office. As I left, I said to myself, I knew I was going to love this, smiled slightly and went on my way.
