Wait no longer! It's time to save time, boost productivity, and double your typing speed. This book is neatly organized and will introduce you to the 7 keystones to success. The keystones are the key to learning how to type like a pro. No longer will you have to use the inconvenient 'hunt-and-peck' approach. Here is what you'll learn: - How to set goals - How to choose the right keyboard - How to apply good ergonomics - How to touch type - How to identify and fix bad habits - How to write books 2x faster - Typing for beginners and experts - 35 typing tips and techniques - Enhance your touch typing skills for a lifetime - And much more... Unlike the other guides out there, this book is full of quality material that is often left out in other guides. As an author with 10 years of typing experience, an average typing speed of 128 words per minute, and a volunteer at Typeracer.com, you can be assured you are learning from a reliable source. Additionally, many tips and techniques have been gathered from some of the top typists in the world and various typing forums, all compiled and presented in an easy-to-read chapter. It doesn't matter if you can type 10 words per minute or 100, there will be value in this book for you. Think about this: If you are currently 30 years of age and type at 80 wpm for 2 hours a day 5 days a week until you are 60 years of age, and assuming you type at 40 wpm, you will have saved 325 days of your life. 325 days of your life. If you are younger than 30 or continue typing past the age of 60, even better. Imagine what you could do with all that extra time. Spend more time building your business, bonding with your family and friends and traveling the world. The list is endless. The earlier you learn, the better, but it's never too late. Finally, 3 bonus chapters have been included: 10 answers to questions I'm asked most frequently, how to make money by typing, and a case study on how I went from typing 0 - 125 words per minute and you can too. About the Author Brandon Nankivell was born in the Barossa Valley, South Australia. He is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Information Technology at the University of South Australia and became the Junior World Unicycle Champion in 2010. Several People Are Typing Calvin Kasulke,2022-09-27 A Good Morning America Book Club Pick! • A work-from-home comedy where WFH meets WTF. • An absurd, hilarious romp through the haunted house of late-stage capitalism. –Carmen Maria Machado, author of In the Dream House Told entirely through clever and captivating Slack messages, this irresistible, relatable satire of both virtual work and contemporary life is The Office for a new world. Gerald, a mid-level employee of a New York-based public relations firm has been uploaded into the company's internal Slack channels—at least his consciousness has. His colleagues assume it's an elaborate gag to exploit the new work-from home policy, but now that Gerald's productivity is through the roof, his bosses are only too happy to let him work from ... wherever he says he is. Faced with the looming abyss of a disembodied life online, Gerald enlists his co-worker Pradeep to help him escape, and to find out what happened to his body. But the longer Gerald stays in the void, the more alluring and absurd his reality becomes. Meanwhile, Gerald's colleagues have PR catastrophes of their own to handle in the real world. Their biggest client, a high-end dog food company, is in the midst of recalling a bad batch of food that's allegedly poisoning Pomeranians nationwide. And their CEO suspects someone is sabotaging his office furniture. And if Gerald gets to work from home all the time, why can't everyone? Is true love possible between two people, when one is just a line of text in an app? And what in the hell does the :dusty-stick: emoji mean? In a time when office paranoia and politics have followed us home, Calvin Kasulke is here to capture the surprising, absurd, and fully-relatable factors attacking our collective sanity ... and give us hope that we can still find a human connection.

Good Knowledge, Bad Knowledge Stephen Hetherington, 2001-10-18 What is knowledge? How hard is it for a person to have knowledge? Good Knowledge, Bad Knowledge confronts contemporary philosophical attempts to answer those classic questions, by identifying and arguing against two fundamental epistemological presumptions. Can there be both better and worse knowledge of some fact? Can you improve your knowledge of a particular fact? Can there be especially bad knowledge of a specific fact? Epistemologists routinely answer these questions with a resounding 'No'. But Stephen Hetherington argues that those standard answers are mistaken. The result is a theory of knowledge that is unique in conceiving of knowledge in a non-absolutist way. The theory offers new solutions to many traditional epistemological puzzles, including various kinds of scepticism, the Gettier challenge, and the problem of the criterion. It also offers a fresh way of using G. E. Moore's anti-sceptical gambit, along with reinterpretations of the epistemic roles of fallibility, luck, relevance, and dogmatism. And what can we know about knowledge? The role of intuition in shaping epistemological thought about knowledge is critically examined. Anyone working on epistemology will enjoy this original and challenging work.

Bio-Typing Beyond Body Language Johnny Seitz,2004-10 Johnny Seitz is currently teaching the art of reading bodies at Ryokan College of Psychology in Los Angeles and maintains a private practice. I have personally and professionally experienced many forms of physiotherapies and psychotherapies over the past 20 years, and all have given myself and my patients varying results. I have found that Johnny Seitz's work is a more lasered approach which goes directly to the core. -Dr. M. Adam Sheck, Licensed Clinical Psychologist I recommend him strongly. -Marcel Marceau, the 20th century's most famous mime I know of no other method better for putting you in touch with your body, thus pointing the way toward health and fitness. -Richard Pena, Director, New York Film Festival The interest in Johnny Seitz has been steadily increasing. Johnny presents a meaningful class, with a variety of approaches and techniques presented intensively in a very short time. He has an innate ability to present a class to students on an introductory level as well as those who are already well versed in a field. Mr. Seitz's influence has been deeply felt. -Myra A.
