Social Work with the Aged and Their Families Roberta R. Greene,Colleen Galambos,Harriet L. Cohen,Nancy Greene,2016-11-30 Social Work with the Aged and Their Families presents the functional-age model (FAM) of intergenerational treatment, an integrative theoretical framework for social workers practicing with older adults and their families. In keeping with the Council on Social Work Education’s curriculum mandate of 2015, social workers are now encouraged to use human behavior theories in working with their geriatric clients. This fourth edition incorporates much-needed additional techniques to address the mental health assessments of the elderly. FAM addresses the assessment of older adults’ biological, psychological, socio-cultural, and spiritual age. It also incorporates an evaluation of the family system, family roles, and family development in this assessment. Interventions at the individual, family, group, and community levels are discussed. This volume, augmented with recent concepts related to successful aging, spirituality, and resiliency, presents the major converging conceptual trends that constitute a model for twenty-first century social work practice in the field of aging. It is an indispensable text for those training in social work practice with the elderly, or those currently in practice.

Guess Whats and Dandelion Greens Mary Beener Spears,2017-04-03 This story and many others cronicle the life of Mary Beener Spears, as she grows up in Waterloo Iowa. - A penny candy was sold called Guess What? It consisted of a candy kiss and small toy, placed from corner to corner of a square of paper, rolled up and the ends tucked in. Thinking they were just a penny, I asked the clerk if she would give me one. She asked if I had a penny, otherwise I couldn't. That was very hard to understand at my tender age so I left feeling very sad. Back at home, Mom was busy with my new little sister but eventually missed me. She called my Aunt and asked her to look for me. She found me about a block from 4th Street, a busy street, dumped my pail, and put me in the car. I remember sitting very close to the door and crying. When we got home and Mom found that I was safe, nothing more was said. I will always remember Aunt Leona for throwing away my dandelions. This is a special memory and a perfect title for my book.

Younger by the Day Victoria Moran,2004-11-23 Wouldn't it be wonderful to love your life through every age and stage of it? Appreciate yourself every step of the way? And have such vitality that, even though you're perfectly proud of the age you are, people routinely think you're several years younger? This happy state is the promise of Younger by the Day, a one - year program for aging in reverse with results that start as soon as you do -- and you can start any day of the year. Victoria Moran was baffled when midlife seemed to change everything, from the shape of her body to her visibility in society. She began a four - year journey, asking these questions: Why do some women blossom with age while others wither? How can you accept yourself as you are and still nurture yourself into becoming the best you can be? How can you draw from your inner wisdom everything you need to deal with the un-certainties of life as well the certainty of growing older? Victoria found the practical answers, and they are distilled here for you to put into use, one day at a time.
