Natal Stones George Kunz,2018-07-16 This special edition of 'Natal Stones : Sentiments and Superstitions Connected to Precious Stones' was written by George Frederick Kunz, and first published in 1892, making it over 125 years old. This super-short, fast read features a separate section for each Natal month (birth month,) and tells us numerous items associated with each one, like Tallymanic Gems, Guardian Angel, Gemstone and more. The book also has a delightful section on Mottoes Formed with Stones (words formed by using the initial letter of each stone,) and a feature on Sentiments of the Gems (what each stone stands for, like courage, love, wisdom, etc.) This little old book is an absolute gem and a must have for all those interested in horoscopes and the gems associated with each birth month. IMPORTANT NOTE - Please read

Cutting for Stone Abraham Verghese,2012-05-17 Marion and Shiva Stone are twin brothers born of a secret union between a beautiful Indian nun and a brash British surgeon. Orphaned by their mother's death and their father's disappearance and bound together by a preternatural connection and a shared fascination with medicine, the twins come of age as Ethiopia hovers on the brink of revolution. Moving from Addis Ababa to New York City and back again, Cutting for Stone is an unforgettable story of love and betrayal, medicine and ordinary miracles—and two brothers whose fates are forever intertwined.

Making Spirits Diana Espirito Santo,Nico Tassi,2013-07-15 The analysis of religion has often placed an emphasis on beliefs and ideologies, prioritizing these elements over those of the material world. Through the ethnographic analysis of a variety of contemporary religious practices, Making Spirits questions the presumed separation of spirit and matter, and sheds light on the dynamics between spiritual and material domains. By examining the cultural contexts in which material culture is central to the creation and experience of religion and belief, this volume analyses the different ways in which the concepts of the material and spiritual worlds intersect, interact and inform each other in the reproduction of religious rites. Using examples such as spirit mediums, fetishes and ritual objects across a variety of cultures such as Latin America, Japan and Central Africa, Nico Tassi and Diana Espirito Santo offer insights that challenge accepted categories in the study of religion, making this book important for scholars of comparative religion, anthropology and sociology.
