Britain and Italy, 1943-1949 Moshe Gat,1996 Examines British policy towards Italy from the fall of Mussolini in July 1943 until Italy joined the North Atlantic alliance in April 1949. Shows how during the invasion of Italy, the British tried to weaken the country and subject it to British hegemony, and how their relations over the next few years reflect the fading British dream of becoming a world power dominating western Europe, and the finally grudging acknowledgment of the former enemy as an ally.
