Visual Poetry Chris Orwig, 2009-08-21 A great photograph has the potential to transcend verbal and written language. But how do you create these photographs? It's not the how that's important, but the who and the what. Who you are as a person has a direct impact on what you capture as a photographer. Whether you are an amateur or professional, architect or acupuncturist, physician or photographer, this guide provides inspiration, simple techniques, and assignments to boost your creative process and improve your digital images using natural light without additional gear. Chris Orwig's insights—to reduce and simplify, participate rather than critique, and capture a story—have made him an immensely popular workshop speaker and faculty member at the prestigious Brooks Institute. His engaging stories presented as lessons follow his classroom approach and highlight what students say is his contagious passion for life. In this accessible and beautifully illustrated four-color guide you will: Discover visual poetry in the creative process Use less to say more with your subject matter Learn to see light, color, shape, and expression Understand what gear is essential Create compelling portraits Make lasting memories of your family and kids Capture the outdoors and adventure Begin the transition from amateur to professional Chris also includes exclusive interviews with such photographers as: Steve McCurry, Chris Rainier, John Sexton, Rodney Smith, Joyce Tenneson, John Paul Caponigro, Marc Riboud, and Pete Turner. A Pair of Sparkling Eyes Margaret Thornton,2001 A warm and evocative Blackpool saga... Blackpool is in its heyday in 1895 when Grace and Hetty Turnbull arrive with their widowed mother, free from the cotton mills of Burnley. Hetty wastes no time and is soon courting Albert, the lad next door, and singing in a Blackpool tavern - but when the gypsies arrive her attention is diverted to the darkly handsome Reuben. Meanwhile Grace gets a job in Donnelly's department store, following an encounter with the owner's son. Although Edwin Donnelly is a Catholic, he ignores his family's wishes and embarks on an affair with Grace. Each girl must face heartache before her eventual happiness is secured.

Bubbly Shea Balik, 2017-10-19 Raise your wine glasses high to toast the men of Dahlonia while they discover the secret to happiness – LOVE. There was no doubt about it, Macalister Whitmore was as straight-laced as they came. He worked all the time, never did anything that would be considered fun, and almost always wore a suit and tie, even in the laid back southern town of Dahlonia, where the dress code tended to be jeans and t-shirts. It was how his parents raised him and Macalister was sure even a tanning salon couldn't change that. David Wilson wanted to throttle his best friend for sending Mac to his tanning salon to try and loosen up the uptight lawyer. He had never met anyone that had actually worn a suit to a tanning salon before. What Mac needed was a doctor to remove that stick from his ass. Then again, if Mac continued to look down his nose at David, he would remove it himself. Still, it seemed that opposites do attract, so they decide to give each other a chance. Happily ever after may sound like a dream come true, but no one ever said it didn't come with pain and heartache. Will they walk away from each other, or walk through hell for the chance to pop some Bubbly and celebrate finding their happy ending.
