Kangaroo Hop Melody Bober,2014-01-03 Students will have fun imitating a hopping kangaroo with this solo by Melody Bober. The back and forth movement between the hands with staccato seconds and thirds creates the fun of hopping and also allows students to practice playing with balanced and even hands. An 8va section at the end provides exploration of the keyboard in a rewarding way.

The Joy of Classical Music Joan Kennedy,2011-04-20 Who's Afraid of Classical Music? For years Joan Kennedy, at home, on the campaign trail, and in concert, has shared her love of classical music with adults and children. Now she uses her experience as a teacher and musician to show how you and your family can make music an enriching part of your lives. In this easy-to-understand and reassuring guide, Joan Kennedy explains: • How to start listening to classical music and enjoying what you hear—with a minimum of effort and expense • Creative, fun ways to bring music to your children—both at home and in school • All you and your family will need to enjoy a musical performance: a brief history of classical music, a user-friendly guide to concert rituals, and advice on how to bring your children to concerts—choosing the performances they will enjoy and making sure they get the most out of the experience Also: a glossary of musical terms • lists of the most popular classical pieces and Joan Kennedy's personal favorites • a guide to further reading • sixteen pages of photographs • foreword by John Williams, former conductor of the Boston Pops and Academy

Great Oboists on Music and Musicianship Michele L. Fiala, Martin Schuring, 2020-11-10 What do the world's most prominent oboists have to say about their musical ideas, performance techniques, and teaching strategies? Michele L. Fiala and Martin Schuring, themselves skilled oboists, undertook the project of asking twenty-six of them about their musicianship and pedagogy. The results are collected in Great Oboists on Music and Musicianship, which provides a unique window into how these virtuosi of wind instruments think about their craft. Each chapter paints an engaging portrait of a leading oboist that allows them to share--in their own words--their insights on the performance techniques, learning strategies, and career moves that propelled them to their current stature. The captivating prose chapters that Fiala and Schuring composed from the interviews allow each artist's personality to shine through as they convey their hard-won wisdom on topics such as musical interpretation, the relationship between vocal and instrumental music, being a good ensemble player, and warm-up routines. The diverse array of musicians portrayed in this book includes orchestral and solo performers from across North America, Europe, and Australia. Their practical advice will resonate not just with oboists but also with players and teachers of other instruments as they pursue their own musical journeys.

Popcorn Lynn Freeman Olson, 2005-05-03 As might be expected, there is a lot of staccato playing in this descriptive little song. It is written in G Major, and the pianist will be using hand-over-hand technique over much of the keyboard. Reading both hands in the same clef is also a challenge of this piece, and strict counting and tempo observance are also required. Correlated to Alfred Level 3.

Stories of Faith & Inspiration Bernadine Johnson, 2012-05-22 These relatable stories and anecdotes, written by veteran piano teacher Bernadine Johnson, are filled with inspirational messages for piano teachers everywhere. The stories are rich with Biblical references and quotes from Scripture, paralleling the lessons the author has learned from her students with lessons learned in the Bible.

The Faraway Mountains Radu Guiasu, 2023-11-07 A dark chapter in recent human history The first part of this novel follows the adventures of three young friends during a memorable last mountain climbing trip to a remote area of a country under the control of a ruthless authoritarian regime. During their journey, the young men have to cope with: bear encounters, venomous adders, colorful locals, storms, dangerous climbs, flooded caves, and other challenges, as the main purpose of their trip is gradually revealed. A second story, intertwined with the first one, focuses on a brilliant young pianist and his ill-fated quest for freedom. Urban life, in the dreary capital where the young men regularly reside, is the focus of the second part of the novel, when the friends begin to go their own separate ways and come to terms with their very different future prospects. The challenges of life in the capital, which include run-ins with feral dog packs and the secret police, are very different than those faced in the mountains, but not less dangerous. Ultimately, this is a book about friendship, the noble, irreverent and indomitable aspects of the human condition, as well as a dark chapter in recent human history, and the various ways in which different people cope with difficult and unfair conditions. It is an often hilarious and sometimes heartbreaking exploration of the absurdities of life under an increasingly erratic dictatorship which is gradually losing its grip on the people it could never fully control.

Player Piano Rag Judy East Wells, 2014-01-03 The music of a player piano is depicted in this solo by Judy East Wells. The tied eighth notes and other syncopated rhythms help to create an authentic ragtime feel. Variations in articulations and interesting harmonies add to the fun. Different registers of the keyboard are used, exercising agility and note reading.
