Gobind Singh (guru)

Jaap Sahib Gobind Singh, 2008-02-01 Jaap Sahib is a universal prayer hailing God's varied attributes, and in the process seeking God's grace. I earnestly invite you to plunge into it and enjoy its bliss. You will emerge transformed and rejuvenated, and find that your worldly challenges seem so small that you will sail through them successfully because God's grace and power will be operating through you. What is more, your spirit will be constantly soaring upwards to its ultimate goal of union with the Supreme Spirit.

Jaap Sahib - English Translation & Transliteration Createspace Independent Pub, God Almighty, 2014-08-12 Read and ponder over this translation of the Jaap Sahib, and feel for yourself the Greatness of the Greatest (God) Jaap Sahib was composed by the tenth Sikh Master, Guru Gobind Singh. Jaap Sahib is made up of 199 pauris or verses, in the form of rhymed couplets and the vocabulary is superb. Jaap Sahib is a total and complete introduction to a non-individual Creator (God), or Nature itself. The verses are in the form of rhymed couplets and the vocabulary and ingenuity are superb. The immortal One is far beyond human comprehension, and Guru Gobind Singh has gracefully presented a composition for one to get an insight into the Supreme Being. Jaap Sahib is a rhythmic hymn, composed like a necklace with pearls and jewels beautifully arranged around a string (the string refers to the Supreme God); the pearls and jewels are His attributes, virtues, and glories. Jaap Sahib is an introduction to God. The glories sung (composed) by Guru Gobind Singh revolve around the following attributes of God: God is metaphysical, beyond time, Eternal, Unborn, not created, Self-existent, and without form, feature, color or contour. Therefore, neither can He be described or depicted, nor can anyone make His image or idol. God is Universal, pervading in all of His manifestations. He cannot be confined to any particular place, land, country, religion, race, body or name. God is the Creator of the Universe and the laws governing it. His Law and Justice is Righteous and Ultimate. God is pervasive in His Creation and also extends beyond it; He is thus ingrained in His Creation and at the same time transcends it. God is Omnipotent, Omnipresent, and omniscient. Nothing can happen outside of His Will; whether good or evil, He is the Creator-Sustainer-Destroyer of His Creation. He Himself is the Life of life, the Death of death. He is the Darkness of darkness, the Light of light. Enjoy this humble translation, and feel for yourself the Greatness of the Greatest.

HOLY SERMONS OF JAAP SAHIB, 2019-11-28 HOLY SERMONS OF JAAP SAHIB are the holy verses which are uttered by Tenth Master and Creator of KHALSA PANTH Shri Guru Gobind Singh Ji. After going through this holy book the feelings of true devotion, true faith and true love for the Almighty God who is the Creator of all and everything, will be created and developed both into the minds and hearts of the readers. The goal or main objective of the human life is only to have union with the Supreme Soul and to attain the salvation. The human life is provided to a person by the Lord so that he or she may make efforts to get rid of transmigration of the soul, to avoid the cycle of repeated births and deaths by performing noble and good deeds and by pondering over the pious name of the Almighty Lord. In this way one may achieve one's goal of life and one may make his or her life a successful one.

Jaap Sahib Nidhi Singh, 2018-02-11 and graces in this wondrous universe. He gives us many epithets of the Supreme Being to dwell on and bow to. God is beyond mundane and material aspects of birth or death, time, dress, form, caste or religion; fear or enmity; greed or desire; and all bends to his supreme will in this universe - He can create, give, preserve and nourish; or take away, tear asunder and destroy as per will. This prayer is held by Sikh liturgy second only to the Japji Sahib composed by Guru Nanak, and is cherished as part of daily prayer routine, or Nitnem of the devout and the god loving. Much of the thought and concept of a monotheistic power - eternal, true, beyond birth, and indestructible - that wields its power over all creation, as developed by the successive Gurus, is reinforced in this penultimate treatise of the final Guru. The 199 verses of this prayer are set brilliantly to ancient Vedic and Sanskrit meter in vogue then, so that the rhythm and beat of this prayer, when sung either in a congregation in the temple or on the battlefield, resounds equally as the becalming vibrations of the cosmic unheard sound, as well as the thrilling pounding of hooves of the steeds of battle and the slashing of swords during combat - in the true tradition of the Khalsa Saint-Soldier as propounded by the tenth Guru. This prayer is important in that it is the sum total of all that the preceding Gurus and the Sikh religion propound of their philosophy of the universe and the concept of the divine, and hence, understanding and imbibing it, especially by the new generation, is critical to understanding the Sikh faith.

Rehras Sahib Nidhi Singh, 2018-09-02 There are three important occasions for prayer in a devout Sikh's typical day. The morning prayers are the Japji Sahib, the Jaap Sahib and the ten Savaiye; in the evening it is Rehras Sahib; and finally, Kirtan Sohila is recited just before sleep. Rehras is combined with two words: Rah, the path, and Raas, the provisions or stores for the journey. Together, the words mean wherewithal for the devout Sikh's spiritual journey. The prayer has all one needs to be blessed and to arrive at God's threshold - the Dar, or the door. Rehras Sahib contains different passages composed by various Sikh Masters. This Bani (God's word) being recited at sunset, is meant to rejuvenate the Khalsa (pure Sikh, the faithful) when he's tired from the toils of the day.

International Bibliography of Sikh Studies Rajwant Singh Chilana, 2006-01-16 The International Bibliography of Sikh Studies brings together all books, composite works, journal articles, conference proceedings, theses, dissertations, project reports, and electronic resources produced in the field of Sikh Studies until June 2004, making it the most complete and up-to-date reference work in the field today. One of the youngest religions of the world, Sikhism has progressively attracted attention on a global scale in recent decades. An increasing number of scholars is exploring the culture, history, politics, and religion of the Sikhs. The growing interest in Sikh Studies has resulted in an avalanche of literature, which is now for the first time brought together in the International Bibliography of Sikh Studies. This monumental work lists over 10,000 English-language publications under almost 30 subheadings, each representing a subfield in Sikh Studies. The Bibliography contains sections on a wide variety of subjects, such as Sikh gurus, Sikh philosophy, Sikh politics and Sikh religion. Furthermore, the encyclopedia presents an annotated survey of all major scholarly work on Sikhism, and a selective listing of electronic and web-based resources in the field. Author and subject indices are appended for the reader's convenience.

Therefore all of us should try to make such kind of efforts with the help of which we may be able to live happily and at the same time we should make efforts to make the other people to live happily. We should endeavor that our life should be a source of inspiration for other people. SERVICE SARDAR PARAMJIT SINGH, 2021-07-30 All of us are the mortal beings and our lives are too short. The holy scriptures of almost all the religions emphasize on doing the service and to do good to others or the mankind and other creatures of the universe too. It is considered a noble deed or a virtue to do the service. All of us should adopt the doctrine of doing the service so that we may make our sincere efforts to make this world a better one. By adopting the doctrine of service in our lives we can escape hatred and jealousy for other persons. By doing so we shall be able to create and develop the feelings of mutual love, mutual co-operation, mutual understanding and of fraternity. By doing so, we can become the useful members of the society. The word service is very sweet and pleasant and that word provides peace and joy or pleasure to our minds. The word service means to serve one's elders and old, to serve the guests who visit our houses, to serve the suppressed, downtrodden, destitute, poor, helpless, unsupported, orphans and needy people with mind, body and wealth. To provide other people comforts, amenities, facilities, rest, peace, eases, delights and pleasures is also called as service. The true service may occur only when the person who do the service does not have any wish or desire for any reward or yield in return of service, when that person does not have any avarice or greed of any kind in his or her mind and when he or she does not have the feelings of selfishness in his or her mind, when such a person does not feel any pride or ego over the service done by him or her, when he or she does not do the service only for the sake of mere show, display, ostentation and hypocrisy instead he or she does the service from his or her true mind.
