Tails from the Booth Lynn Terry,2015-10-20 Furry friends meet photo booths in this quirky photography book that captures all the cute canine action when the leashes come off and the dogs are the star of the show. If dogs could take selfies, it might look something like Tails from the Booth. For this adorable collection of photographs, Lynn Terry draws on more than twenty years of professional photography experience to capture the most endearing moments between canine companions: A couple of pitbulls grinning widely at the camera. Two saggy-faced bulldogs bumping jowls. A Pomeranian, an English bulldog, and a Boston terrier dog-piling (of course) on top of each other. These pictures show the countless ways dogs will ham it up in front of a camera, and that more dogs in a photo booth = even more fun! With all the charm of Underwater Dogs and Shake, Tails from the Booth will make you laugh out loud at all the awkward and endearing ways dogs make friends with each other.

Hillhaven Lodge ,2003 Red-hot Hollywood director Brett Ratner (Rush Hour I and II, Red Dragon and the forthcoming Superman), lives in Ingrid Bergman's old Hillhaven Lodge, where he houses his old-fashioned b/w photo booth. Into this booth Ratner has enticed a cornucopia of white-hot celebrities, personalities and legends, all of whom voluntarily vlogged, posed and made silly faces without the help of stylists and makeup artist. The result is a hilarious and revealing look at such people as Michael Jackson, Britney Spears, Liv Tyler, Colin Farrell, Mariah Carey, Edward Norton and Salma Hayek and more.

What better way to showcase adoptable dogs than by letting their true personalities shine in a photo booth! In the tradition of the best-selling dog photography book, Underwater Dogs, Shelter Dogs in a Photo Booth wins the heart of all dog lovers. From talented photographer (and now public figure and adoption champion) Guinnevere Shuster comes Shelter Dogs in a Photo Booth, a guaranteed-to-make-you-smile photo book featuring rescued dogs in a brand-new light. Get ready to see the cutest canine portraits you've ever seen, along with a short stories about the dog's personality and how the dog ended up in the shelter, and the adoption date. Guinnevere's fantastic photos have been featured on websites, in magazines, and on television programs all over the world: Good Morning America, NBC, ABC, MSNBC, The Huffington Post, Time, The Daily Mail . . . even celebrities have gotten in on the action: Amy Poehler, Cesar Millan, and Zooey Deschanel have made statements and posts declaring their love of Guinnevere's work. After the adorable and up-for-adoption photos of these furry friends were seen and enjoyed by millions, adoption rates at Utah's Humane Society skyrocketed. A portion of the proceeds of this book will benefit the Humane Society of Utah and Best Friends Animal Society.

American Photobooth Nakki Goranin,2008-01-29 A fascinating history of an American institution that includes an extraordinary collection of photobooth images. "That a perceptive, dedicated, and sensitive artist like N kki Goranin has rescued from oblivion so many amazing self-portraits created by amateurs confronting themselves in the fleeting privacy of humble photobooths is yet another miracle for which we can be grateful."—from the foreword by David Haberstich Generally relegated to the realm of kitsch, the history and cultural importance of the photobooth has long been overlooked. Here, N kki Goranin documents the invention, technological evolution, and commercial history of the photobooth with extensive illustrations culled from twenty-five years of collecting. Complementing this history is a powerful collection of heartbreaking, funny, and absolutely beautiful photobooth images. These often solitary figures—seeking freedom, confession, a thrill—are evocative of a lost time and place. Haberstich writes, "For anyone who assumes that photobooth pictures are perfunctory, utilitarian records at best, the range of emotions and moods portrayed by the subjects of [this] collection is a revelation."

Photobooth Meags Fitzgerald,2014 For almost a century chemical photobooths have occupied public spaces; giving people the opportunity to quickly take inexpensive, quality photos. In the last decade these machines have started to rapidly disappear, causing an eclectic group of individuals from around the world to come together and respond. Illustrator, writer and long-time photobooth lover, Meags Fitzgerald has chronicled this movement and the photobooth's fortuitous history in a graphic novel. Having traveled in North America, Europe and Australia, she's constructed a biography of the booth through the eyes of technicians, owners, collectors, artists and fanatics. Fitzgerald explores her own struggle with her relationship to these fleeting machines, while looking to the future.

This guide covers: - The information you should know before choosing a photo booth rental - The questions you should ask to make sure a particular company is right for you - What equipment will generate the highest quality photos, and prints - Early warning signs to spot rip-offs - How to squeeze the most out of your budget

Photobooth Raynal Pellicer,2011-01-01 Since its introduction to the public in September of 1926 on a street corner in New York City, the automatic photobooth has captured the interest of the general public and fine artists alike. Raynal Pellicer, author of Mug Shots, examines the self-portraits--sometimes practical, sometimes whimsical--produced by this enduring 20th-century novelty. The countless documents included here feature shots of Francis Bacon, Billy Childish, Allen Ginsberg, John F. Kennedy, Anne Frank, Salvador Dal  , Andr  Breton, Wim Wenders, Walker Evans, and John Lennon, among others. Photobooth draws a fantastic inventory of artistic variations on the snapshot, bringing together works of art and self-portraits of persons both known and unknown, from the 1920s to the present.

on 18 vintage photo booth pictures. The narratives are told in both first and third person and are presented in a range of different writing styles. The photo subjects--introduced at the beginning of each chapter--span from as early as the 1920s up to the mid 1970s. Some are whimsical tales, while others tell a grittier side of life. There is an inherent intimacy and, ultimately, a loneliness to the photo booths of old. But, at the same time, an honesty. Many of these photos are personal in nature, showing exactly who these people are, unable to lie to the unseen lensman. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Tom Sierchio is a novelist and screenwriter whose work includes the feature films, Untamed Heart and The Girl Who Invented Kissing which he also directed. To date he has written over 50 screenplays, thirteen teleplays, two novels and numerous short stories. He lives in New Jersey with his wife and three mutts.

They often show Black people of different ages, genders, classes in serious and also playful poses.
