Viñuales, Andrew Clapham, Laurence Boisson de Chazournes, Mamadou Hébié, 2023-11-13 This collection of essays celebrating the work of Professor Marcelo Kohen brings together the leading scholars and practitioners of public international law from different continents and generations to explore some of the most challenging issues of contemporary international law. The volume is a testimony of esteem and friendship from colleagues and former students, and it covers a vast expanse, reflecting the width and diversity of Professor Kohen's own contribution. Written in English, French and Spanish, the essays in this volume will appeal to a broad public of academics, practitioners and students of international law from around the world.

Espoir et Victoire - Le comble pour une gynécologue Dr Marie Crédoz, 2016-07-08 Je suis gynécologue-obstétricienne. Je viens de fêter mes quarante ans. Les vacances d'été touchent à leur fin. Un soir où je palpe machinalement mon sein gauche, je sens comme un petit grain de riz sous mes doigts. Insignifiant. Un kyste, certainement. Par acquit de conscience, je passe une échographie. Puis une biopsie, le 11 septembre. Le verdict tombe aussitôt, c'est un cancer ! Un cancer infiltrant. Alors, tout s'enchaîne : examens complémentaires, qui mettent au jour un deuxième foyer cancéreux ; exérèse des tumeurs et des ganglions ; ablation du sein ; chimiothérapie ; radiothérapie ; hormonothérapie ; reconstruction mammaire. Très vite, je retire ma blouse blanche. Découvrant l'envers du décor, je pose un regard de soignée sur le monde soignant que je croyais connaître. Je supporte la lourdeur des traitements. Courageusement ? non, je descends au fond du puits. Je suis morte. Le cancer relève de la bombe atomique. Quiconque ne l'a pas vécu dans sa chair ne peut jauger la violence de la déflagration qui se produit chez le sujet malade. Puis, un jour, la vie reprend... Lentement.

Friends of the Constitution Colleen A. Sheehan,Gary L. McDowell,1835 There were many writers other than John Jay, James Madison, and Alexander Hamilton who, in 1787 and 1788, argued for the Constitution's ratification. In a collection central to our understanding of the American founding, Friends of the Constitution brings together forty-nine of the most important of these other Federalists' writings. Colleen A. Sheehan is Professor of Political Science at Villanova University. Gary L. McDowell is the Tyler Haynes Interdisciplinary Professor of Leadership Studies, Political Science, and Law at the University of Richmond in Virginia. From 1992 to 2003 he was the Director of the Institute of United States Studies in the University of London.

Festschrift Ahmed Sadek El-Kosheri Mohamed Abdel Raouf, Philippe Leboulanger, 2015-06-24 With this Festschrift, the Bahrain Chamber for Dispute Resolution (BCDR-AAA) is starting a tradition of honoring Arab scholars and practitioners who promote international arbitration and international law. Over the last few decades, international arbitration institutions and international law societies have generously acknowledged the work of leading scholars and practitioners from the region. The time has come, however, for these individuals to be honored by institutions within the region. It should come as no surprise that the BCDR-AAA is dedicating this first Festschrift to Professor Dr. Ahmed El-Kosheri. His immense contributions to international commercial arbitration, international investment arbitration, and international law more broadly, as well as his significant influence on a generation of lawyers and students from the Arab region and beyond, fully justify this choice. As a testament to Dr. El-Kosheri's remarkable career, broad intellectual horizons and extensive geographical reach, the Festschrift includes contributions from forty-six authors-judges, arbitrators, practitioners and scholars-representing twenty-one nationalities from the Middle East, North and Western Africa, East Asia, Europe, and North and South America, who wrote on topics as diverse as international arbitration and ADR mechanisms, international investment law, public international law (including international administrative law), and private international law in Arabic, English, and French. One can hardly think of another Arab figure who has done more than Dr. El-Kosheri to strengthen international law while bridging legal-cultural divides between the Arab region and the rest of the world. He will undoubtedly continue to inspire many generations to come.

E Pluribus Unum:Liber Amicorum Georges A.L. Droz - on the Progressive Unification of Private International Law Georges Droz,Alegria Borrás,Andreas Bucher,Michel Verwilghen,Teun Struycken,1996-06-07 The unification of Private International Law is a goal to which all the contributors to this impressive volume have committed themselves, and one which seems increasingly to attract the attention of legal practitioners, researchers, writers and legislators. The essays give a unique overview of the current state of the law with respect to those areas which have been unified, or which are susceptible to unification. Insights are given into national as well as international practice, and theoretical aspects have not been neglected.

A Critical Study of Condillac's Ellen McNiven Hine, 2012-12-06 The Traité des systèmes is a milestone in the intellectual history of the eighteenth century. This is a study of its content, structure, sources and importance. It includes a discussion of Condillac's analysis of good and bad systems, the adequacy of his knowledge and understanding of the speculative metaphysics of the preceding century, the effectiveness of his method of attack on seventeenth-century metaphysical systems, his conception of empirical and scientific method, and in particular his understanding of the role of hypotheses, his application of the Newtonian scientific method to politics, physics, and the arts, and, finally, his preoccupation with the meaning of words and with the origin and purpose of language. Speculative metaphysical systems, such as those of Descartes, Malebranche, Boursier, Leibniz and Spinoza, are attacked by Condillac, as are popular superstitions and prejudices, with the weapon of linguistic criticism. It is the systematic use of this weapon which makes the Traité des systèmes more than a reflection of his contemporaries' antipathy towards speculative metaphysics. In memory of my MOTHER and FATHER ACKNOWLEDGMENTS I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness to several people. I should like first and foremost to thank Dr. W. H. Barber, who has for many years tirelessly given me encouragement and invaluable assistance. I wish to thank also Professors RH. Rasmussen, A. D. Wilshere and C. Wake for their help and their support in the early days of the preparation of this study. I owe special thanks also to Mrs. M. V.
