Christmas Road Trip D. L. Wolven, 2011-05-24 Sue Wright and Ken Polk are about to celebrate their third Christmas together. Sue thinks it's about time for Ken to pop the question, but her dreams don't seem to make a blip on his radar. Ken is ready to take Sue to a barbershop Christmas concert; she'd like a romantic evening alone with her beau. They're at the theater when all hell breaks loose ... Sue and Ken decide to part ways. She's given him enough chances, and it's time for her to hit the road. She links up with her friend from Hawaii, Lani. With dreams of spending Christmas in a town like It's a Wonderful Life's fictional Bedford Falls, the two women head to Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Sue gets a job as a radio DJ and prepares for a new life, away from Ken. Ken thinks Sue and Lani are in southern California, and in an effort to get as far away from his ex as possible, he plans a road trip of his own. He wants to end up at his Uncle Phil and Aunt Betty's place— in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Filled with twists of fate, trips to jail, and bone-chilling weather, Christmas Road Trip dares to ask ... is there such a thing as destiny?

All My Road Trip Shit Hartwell Press, 2020-07-27 This All My Road Trip Shit Travel Journal is set up to make documenting your trip easy and fun. Writing down the information as you go along helps you remember your trip easier and stay with you longer. I've set up this log book in the following way: 1. The first section is where you can record the Date and who you're traveling with. 2. Next you'll see a section to record the Weather Conditions. 3. The next section is where you can jot down where you're traveling to and from, the distance that will be, and how long it took. 4. Then you'll see a Traffic section to rate how bad the traffic was. 5. Next is an area to plan out your Travel Route a little more, including Stops, Time of Arrival, and Highlights/Notes. Be as detailed as possible here, and fill it out with specific moments.6. Dining Experiences is the next section, and you can write down what you ate, how much, and what restaurants you stopped at.7. The last section is Sleepover Experiences, where you can write your thoughts about where you're staying - the hotel, a friend's house, a camp site, etc.All of these sections are meant to be adaptable to many types of trips, but specifically helpful for road trips.Enjoy (and document) the journey!

and Jack's holiday and a catastrophic disaster strikes the United States. Major decisions need to be made, and squabbled over. Stay in their apartment and wait it out, or drive across an increasingly hazardous country? The holiday was always meant to be a road trip... Since Jack and his wife moved from England to California, Chris and his wife, along with a few friends, have travelled over to see them once a year. This year the holiday starts in Denver, Colorado. Only Chris made the trip this time. Early in their holiday, an unknown, but deadly virus rapidly spreads through the country. America is quickly placed under quarantine by the rest of the world. All flights in and out have been grounded. Jack has to get back to his wife. Chris doesn't have much choice. He can't let his friend travel all that way by himself.

Memory Road Trip Krista Marson, 2021-09-07 MEMORY ROAD TRIP is a collection of travel stories ranging from the sublime to the surreal as recounted by a former travel agent who saw the world on the cheap. The journey down memory road is a heartfelt excursion into the past that takes armchair explorers on an odyssey of life, love, and loneliness. The circuitous path is full of philosophical nooks and crannies, and many stories get told from the bottom of a well. Many of Krista's stories speak to the angst that simmers inside all of us as we confront the many absurdities that exist in this world. Her passion for nature, art, history, and architecture gush across the page, along with her contagious curiosity in life and her pragmatic acceptance of death. MEMORY ROAD TRIP is not only an adventurous journey to certain parts of the globe, but it is also an introspective and witty journey to the mysterious self. For as large as the world is, it has grown infinitely smaller, yet currently exists relatively out of reach. Travel, for the moment, is safer done mentally these days, so now's the time to go on a MEMORY ROAD TRIP with someone who knows the way.

travelled around the United States and Canada for twelve months towing a camper, touching on all forty-eight contiguous states and eight Canadian Provinces. As we tried to support the American economy the only way we knew how by sticking to the secondary roads, stopping at all the small towns, and buying beer at all the backwoods bars we were continually asked the same questions: What are you? We're Kiwis. Where are you from? New Zealand, but we live in Australia. What are you doing here? We want to see every State, learn all the history, and experience what it is like to live as an American. Why? Because America gets such a bad rap around the world, we want to find out for ourselves if it is justified . . . and if you really are as good as you think you are . . .
