Angélica Dass

The Colors of Us Karen Katz,2002-10 Seven-year-old Lena and her mother observe the variations in the color of their friends' skin, viewed in terms of foods and things found in nature.

All the Colors Came Out Kate Fagan,2021-05-18 This love story for the ages from a # 1 New York Times bestselling author comes an unforgettable story about basketball and the enduring bonds between a father and daughter that will heal relationships and hearts (Glennon Doyle). Kate Fagan and her father forged their relationship on the basketball court, bonded by sweaty high fives and a dedication to the New York Knicks. But as Kate got older, her love of the sport and her closeness with her father grew complicated. The formerly inseparable pair drifted apart. The lessons that her father instilled in her about the game, and all her memories of sharing the court with him over the years, were a distant memory. When Chris Fagan was diagnosed with ALS, Kate decided that something had to change. Leaving a high-profile job at ESPN to be closer to her mother and father and take part in his care, Kate Fagan spent the last year of her father's life determined to return to him the kind of joy they once shared on the court. All the Colors Came Out is Kate Fagan's completely original reflection on the very specific bond that one father and daughter shared, forged in the love of a sport which over time came to mean so much more. Studded with unforgettable scenes of humor, pain and hope, Kate Fagan has written a book that plumbs the mysteries of the unique gifts fathers gives daughters, ones that resonate across time and circumstance.

The Black Book of Colors Menena Cottin,Rosana Faría,2008 In a story where the text appears in white letters on a black background, as well as in braille, and the illustrations are also raised on a black surface, Thomas describes how he recognizes different colors using various senses.

No One Owns the Colors Gianna Davy,2023-02-07 For every young artist scolded for using the “wrong” color crayon, every boy teased for wearing a pastel shirt, every girl denied blue shoes, here's the perfect response: All colors are for everyone. Just ask Nature! No One Owns the Colors is a lively celebration of self-expression and a bolstering invitation to advocate for your special uniqueness. The unnamed and non-gendered narrator shows us that colors are simply part of our natural world. No bit of the spectrum—from pink and blue to scarlet and chartreuse—is meant to be claimed by any one gender or being or culture. Color is not something that can be right or wrong, or better or worse. Inspired by school yard experiences of the author's own children, this melodic, rhythmic text provides the words and the confidence readers may need if someone says that their color—be it skin, shirt, shoes, or simply the crayon they love most—is wrong.

Big Book of Colours Felicity Brooks,2015-08-01

The Colors Monique Félix,1993-01-01 A mouse trapped in a book discovers what colors are.

Colors is a lyrical field guide to the richly textured and depthless stories of color. This exuberant, sometimes haunting collection of histories, poetry, criticism, fictions, memoir, and myths examines with heartbreaking beauty the individual shades that make up a rainbow. With tough and tender grace, Berardini takes us on a passionate and compelling journey into the deepest soul and brightest edges of this fundamental subject with extraordinary poetry vision.

The Colors We Share Angélica Dass,2021 Made for young readers, five to eight years old, this book features portraits that celebrate the diverse beauty of human skin. By depicting people from all over the world against a background that matches their skin tone, Angélica Dass challenges the racially charged colors we use to describe race. What does it mean to be seen as white, black, yellow, red, or brown? The pictures show how people and humanity are much richer and more complex than these categories, rendering the labels we use absurd. This book also reveals how every conceivable skin color in the world can be recreated from a mix of only three colors, which we all share. Through Dass's words and pictures, the book celebrates diversity as humankind's most powerful resource and inspires readers to rethink how we see each other.

Purple Patricia M. Stockland,2011-01-01 Find the color purple all around you through this bold and beautiful book.
