

Under Bridge Graffiti

John H. Kennedy

Under the Bridge Paul Cavalieri, 2014 Join Paul Cava Cavalieri on a journey through graffiti history and the evolution of a major cultural landmark. In this account, Cava shares his experiences under the Bronx's East 238th Street bridge, which over the years has become a Bronx Graffiti Hall of Fame, through an astonishing, lifelong photographic diary. From the late 1950s to the 1990s, graffiti artists would congregate here to express themselves by unleashing their creative energy. In this adopted home away from home, generations of graffiti artists formed bonds as well as rivalries. Take in four decades' worth of work from prolific artists including Boots119, Sent, and Sien5. Also represented are graffiti writers from the Woodlawn and Wakefield neighborhoods, connected by the famous concrete viaduct built between 1929 and 1931, as well as unique and personal insights into successive generations of crews, such as a recent, major contributor from Matilda Avenue.

The City Beneath Susan A. Phillips, 2019-11-05 A sweeping history of Los Angeles told through the lens of the many marginalized groups—from hobos to taggers—that have used the city's walls as a channel for communication. Graffiti written in storm drain tunnels, on neighborhood walls, and under bridges tells an underground and, until now, untold history of Los Angeles. Drawing on extensive research within the city's urban landscape, Susan A. Phillips traces the hidden language of marginalized groups over the past century—from the early twentieth-century markings of hobos, soldiers, and Japanese internees to the later inscriptions of surfers, cholos, and punks. Whether describing daredevil kids, bored workers, or clandestine lovers, Phillips profiles the experiences of people who remain underrepresented in conventional histories, revealing the powerful role of graffiti as a venue for cultural expression. Graffiti aficionados might be surprised to learn that the earliest documented graffiti bubble letters appear not in 1970s New York but in 1920s Los Angeles. Or that the negative letterforms first carved at the turn of the century are still spray painted on walls today. With discussions of characters like Leon Ray Livingston (a.k.a. "A-No. 1"), credited with consolidating the entire system of hobo communication in the 1910s, and Kathy Zuckerman, better known as the surf icon "Gidget," this lavishly illustrated book tells stories of small moments that collectively build into broad statements about power, memory, landscape, and history itself.

Under Spring Jeremy Rosenberg, 2014 Offers a vivid, deeply inclusive chronicle of a long-term art and urban landscape project located under the North Spring Street Bridge in Los Angeles a new way of viewing history

Ink Pens & Spray Cans Kenny Attaway, 2016-05-12 Ink pens & Spray cans (the graffiti bridge mixtape) was inspired and created by Ink pens Kenny (Pens) and his younger brother Sayvion- (Fede; shortened for graffiti). Kenny and Savion are kind of forced to live in their parents broken down condo until their living/financial issues improve (broke struggling artist).. To further complicate an already hostile and awkward living arrangement in the condo aka The Rhinestone Box, the brothers takes in an almost complete stranger, struggling writer, journalist and ex graffiti artist Nirvana Chancellor. The three don't get along very well early on and has some hostile differences in artistic merits/expressions Nirvana likes both poetry, short stories, photography and a range of work, but believes Kenny to open more to the world to share his heart. In the same she believes Fede to graduate from amateur tag artist to a colossal figure. Kenny and believes that graffiti are not necessarily criminal as his mother feels, but that Fede should move away from tagging their home and other people's property. Sayvion's graffiti and tagging he does not understand why he has to tag it and express it on buildings versus a piece of paper, etc. Savion believes that poetry and short writing is cowardly and that a man should express himself straight from the art. Now Kind of forced to live under one roof/condo (which they frequently refer to as the Rhinestone Box) the three create various forms of magic and learn that every human being has some form of artistry/inspiration that helps them to throb and create with -which is documented & celebrated in the frequent visits from both parents, friends and various girls The three (Fede, Pens & Nirvana rise together to create Ink pens & spray cans ; the graffiti bridge mixtape the mixture of their work recorded. Ink-joy.

Graffiti J. Fallenstein, 2017-04-01 Legend has it that couples who paint their names on the bridge at midnight will stay together forever, but those who break their promises will be cursed. Now her friend is going through a breakup and someone—or something—is threatening her. Can Lucia get to the bottom of it before someone gets hurt . . .or worse?

Sustaining the West Liza Piper, Lisa Szabo-Jones, 2015-03-31 Western Canada's natural environment faces intensifying threats from industrialization in agriculture and resource development, social and cultural complicity in these destructive practices, and most recently the negative effects of global climate change. The complex nature of the problems being addressed calls for productive interdisciplinary solutions. In this book, arts and humanities scholars and literary and visual artists tackle these pressing environmental issues in provocative and transformative ways. Their commitment to environmental causes emerges through the fields of environmental history, environmental and ecocriticism, ecofeminism, ecoart, ecopoetry, and environmental journalism. This indispensable and timely resource constitutes a sustained cross-pollinating conversation across the environmental humanities about forms of representation and activism that enable ecological knowledge and ethical action on behalf of Western Canadian environments, yet have global reach. Among the developments in the contributors' construction of environmental knowledge are a focus on the power of sentiment in linking people to the fate of nature, and the need to decolonize social and environmental relations and assumptions in the West.
