IMF Country Report No. 19/161 CZECH REPUBLIC 1. Recent international developments pose potentially sizable downside risks to the Czech Republic's economy. The main downside risks revolve around Brexit, trade tensions between the United States and China, and weakening demand in the euro area. These developments could reduce the demand for Czech exports and increase the price of imports. G.7 Global Value Chains and Trade in Value Added - IMF Due to reductions in transportation costs, the information technological revolution, lower production costs and more open economic policies, production processes of a final product are increasingly fragmented across national economies in a OECD-WTO Database on Trade in Value-Added The Trade in Value-Added Initiative addresses the double counting implicit in current gross flows of trade, and instead measures flows related to the value that is added (labour compensation, taxes and profits) by a country in the production of any good or service that is exported.
